

Opportunity Zone Connector: Jordan Bartlett

Meet Mr. Jordan Bartlett. Born and raised in Indianapolis, he is a graduate of Arlington High School. Jordan is currently pursuing a Bachelor of Science in Christian Ministries at Liberty University. Over the years Jordan has served as a mentor, basketball coach, youth leader, and volunteer. He most recently worked for the Marion County Prosecutor's Office/Child Support Division as an Intake Paralegal.

As an Opportunity Zone Connector, he will apply his knowledge of the workforce to assist young people needing vocational guidance. Jordan is excited to concentrate his talents and energies toward uplifting young men and their families residing in the Beechwood and Hawthorne.
