

UNDOING RACISM®

FOUR-PART SPEAKERS SERIES

Child Advocates has invited a series of speakers from the People's Institute for Survival and Beyond to talk about race, racism and its impact on the community. It's an opportunity for people of all races to better understand each other and teach our future generations that we can be part of the solution. Please join us in the conversation. Learn more at www.childadvocates.net/events

1. Thursday, September 15, 5:30pm-7:30pm
Martin University with Berwick Mahdi on Power

2. Thursday, October 20, 5:30pm-7:30pm
St. Luke's United Methodist Church with Joyce James on Race Equity and Institutional Racism

3. Thursday, November 10, 5:30-7:30pm
Indianapolis Urban League with Barbara Major on
"My Life Undoing Racism"

4. Thursday, December 1, 5:30pm-7:30pm
Martin University with Ron Chisom on the History of Racism and the People's Institute for Survival and Beyond